

PRESIDENT BEGINS TRIP THAT WILL COVER 12,759 MILES

NOTABLE FEATURE WILL BE MEETING WITH DIAZ AND VISIT TO MEXICO

A REMARKABLE ITINERARY

The Tour Began Today With Motor Ride to Boston—Thirty States and Two Territories Will be Traversed and Twenty Railroad Systems Used.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 14.—When President Taft motored into Boston this afternoon to be the guest of the chamber of commerce at dinner, he actually started on one of the most notable trips ever taken by a chief magistrate of the United States.

After spending the night at a hotel in Boston, the president will leave at 10 a. m. tomorrow on the first stage of his long journey, the first stopping place being Chicago, where he will be entertained by the Hamilton club.

Leading through thirty states and both of the far southwestern territories, the president's trip will reach its climax at El Paso, Tex., October 16, where he will meet President Diaz of Mexico. A luncheon will be given in honor of the two presidents. The meeting will be surrounded with all the pomp and dignity by which such a rare occasion demands.

After Mr. Taft has formally received Senor Diaz at El Paso he will cross the international bridge to Ciudad Juarez, officially to return the call of the chief executive of the southern republic. During the evening of the 16th, President Taft will be entertained at a state dinner on Mexican soil.

To Cover 12,759 Miles

The president's trip covers an itinerary of 12,759 miles, and his private cars, the Mayflower and the Hasle-men, will be handled over twenty-two different railroad systems. The Southern Pacific gets the longest haul, 2,289 miles. The Maricopa & Phoenix railroad in Arizona gets the short haul of thirty-five miles. The voyage down the Mississippi river from St. Louis to New Orleans on the steamboat Mississippi covers 1,165 miles and occupies four days and five nights.

In addition to the meeting with President Diaz and the voyage down the Mississippi river, a trip which President Roosevelt made several years ago, the striking incidents of President Taft's tour will include a moonlight ride through the Royal Gorge and a night trip over the highest passes of the Rocky mountains, an inspection of one of the greatest irrigation projects in all the west at Montrose, Colo.; a visit to the smelters at Butte; a flying visit to the Coeur d'Alene country of Northern Idaho; a two-days' stay at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle; a day of eight-seeing down the Shasta route in California; a three-days' visit to the Yosemite valley; a day spent about the rim of the Grand Canyon in Arizona, and four days on the ranch of the president's brother, Charles P.
Taft, near Corpus Christi, Texas.

Cabinet Officers With Him

Five of his nine cabinet officers will at different times be the guests of the president for portions of the trip, and after he reaches the Pacific coast there will be from two to four with him practically all the time.

Leaving Boston Wednesday, the president's party will consist of Captain Archibald W. Butt, his military aide; Wendell W. Mischler, assistant secretary; Charles C. Wagner, executive stenographer; Dr. J. J. Richardson of Washington; Gerrit Fort, assistant to the vice president of the New York Central lines, who will have all of the transportation arrangements for the entire trip in charge; James Sloan, Jr., and Joseph E. Murphy, secret service operatives; Arthur Brooks, messenger, and six newspaper men.

The cabinet officers, who will be with the president at the meeting with President Diaz are the secretary of state, Mr. Knox, secretary of war, Mr. Dickinson; the postmaster general, Mr. Hitchcock, and the secretary of commerce and labor, Mr.

Nagel.

The secretary of the interior, Mr.
Ballinger, is expected to be with the president during the greater part of the time he spends in the northwest.
The president also has invited a number of United States senators and personal friends to make portions of the journey as his friends.

John Hays Hammond is to join the president at Spokane, Wash., September 28, and make the remainder of the journey back to Washington.

A Sprained Ankle

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. For sale by all deal-

TEAM BALKS IN STREAM AND TWO DROWN

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT CLAIMS PIONEER RATON WOMAN AND HER DAUGHTER

SURVIVOR GOES FOR HELP

Wanders Eighteen Miles in Darkness Though Badly Injured, Looking for Relief—Party of Four Were Crossing Finch's Arroyo Near Gate City When Cloudburst Overtook Them.

Raton, N. M., Sept. 14.—John W.
Nickle, a pioneer business man of Raton, his wife and their daughter, Miss Ethel Nickle, and Albert Kessler, aged 25, also of Raton, were swept away in a cloudburst while crossing Finch's arroyo, eleven miles east of this city, Sunday night. Mrs.
Nickle and her daughter were drowned, while Nickle and Kessler were badly injured. Both of the men may lose their minds if they recover from their injuries.

Miss Nickle was drowned while Kessler was trying to save her. They were found on the bank of the arroyo two miles south of where the party was thrown into the raging torrent.
Kessler was alive, with the body of the girl clasped tightly in his arms.
He was delirious and still believed the young woman was alive. Kessler was badly cut about the head, arms and hands, the result of being swept through two barbed wire fences, and his body was full of bruises. His condition is very serious and it was found necessary to administer whisky and opiates to keep him quiet.
He was brought to Raton and placed under the care of a physician.

The body of Mrs. Nickle has not yet been recovered, although searching parties have been looking for it ever since yesterday.

Went 18 Miles Out of His Way

The news of the double drowning was brought Raton at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by Nickle, who became lost in the darkness and traveled eighteen miles in the wrong direction looking for help. He did not discover his mistake until he accidentally ran across a ranch house ten miles from the scene of the accident. Nickle is now in a serious mental and physical condition as the result of his harrowing experience. He, like Kessler, is cut about the head, face, arms and hands and his body is full of bruises.

Sunday morning Nickle engaged a two-seated buggy and two horses from the Bellis livery and started with his wife, daughter and Kessler for the Wilson ranch, seventeen miles east of Raton. The weather was fine and the drive to the ranch was pleasant. Toward dusk the party started back home. The sky to the westward became overclouded and rain began to fall. Darkness came on rapidly and soon Nickle was unable to guide the horses, which were given a free rein. The animals kept to the roadway.

Balky Horses Brought Death

The road where it passed over Finch's arroyo, which is generally dry, is quite on a level. There appeared to be about a foot of water in the bed and Nickle allowed the horses to start across, knowing that it had been forded by a single rig which had passed them on the road an hour before.

The water proved four feet deep and the horses became frightened and balked. They became unmanageable and broke the harness and overturned the buggy with its four occupants. The buggy was caught in the current and turned over several times. Nickle and Kessler finally managed to extricate themselves and by this time Mrs. Nickle and her daughter were washed down under the cushions in the back seat which had fallen on them when the buggy overturned and swept some distance and were lodged against a barbed wire fence. Nickle and Kesler were also washed against the fence.

Second Wall of Water Fatal

Nickle and Kessler were on the point of rescuing Mrs. Nickle and her daughter when a second wall of water fully ten feet high swept through the arroyo and struck the team and buggy, which were twenty feet above. The rig and horses were dashed against the luckless people and the fence gave way. They were washed down the stream until they encountered another fence, which was also swept away.

Mrs. Nickle disappeared from sight at the second fence and was never seen again. Miss Nickle called to Kessler for help. He swam to her side and grasped her in his arms and then began to struggle to save himself and the young woman. He managed to reach shore two miles down the stream, but by this time cinnati, O.

Miss Nickle was dead. Nickle was also lost sight of at the second fence and Kessler still believes, in his delirious state, that he was drowned.

Nickle does not know how far he was carried, before he managed to reach the bank of the arroyo, but when he recovered, he started to look for help in the darkness. He lost his way and wandered about for eighteen miles before reaching a lonely ranch house, where he told what had happened. The ranch people immediately began organizing a rescue party, which started work at daybreak yesterday morning.
